

JENNIFER PRYCE, Portfolio Manager, U.S. Investments

Jennifer Pryce oversees the management and growth of Calvert Foundation's U.S. investments, this includes the social enterprise portfolio as well as investments in community development finance institutions, affordable housing development and initiatives around transit oriented development and green communities. Prior to the Calvert Foundation, Ms. Pryce worked with Nonprofit Finance Fund, a national CDFI, as the Director of the Washington DC-MD-VA office.

Before NFF, Ms. Pryce also held positions at Wall Street firms, working at Neuberger & Berman as an equity research analyst and Morgan Stanley's London office in the Investment Banking division. Ms. Pryce was a Peace Corps Volunteer in Gabon, Africa as well as worked at the Public Theater in New York City.

Ms. Pryce received a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Union College and a MBA from Columbia University. She serves as the Finance Chair on the Board of Appletree Institute, a Washington DC Public Charter School. Ms Pryce also serves as a member of the selection committee for the Washington Post Award for Excellence in Nonprofit Management.