

Roland Sanchez-Medina, Jr. is a founding partner of Sanchez-Medina, Gonzalez, Quesada, Lage, Crespo, Gomez & Machado, LLP, and concentrates his practice in the areas of corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, securities law, divestitures, joint ventures, finance, board governance, real estate transactions, including real estate financing, tax planning and structure, and international tax planning for inbound transactions. Mr. Sanchez-Medina represents a wide variety of public and large closely held businesses, both domestic and international. Mr. Sanchez-Medina was previously a Partner in the Miami office of McDermott Will & Emery, LLP.

Mr. Sanchez-Medina received his B.B.A. from the University of Miami and his J.D. from Boston College Law School. Mr. Sanchez-Medina went on to obtain his LL.M. in Taxation from New York University Law School.

Mr. Sanchez-Medina has achieved an AV rating from Martindale Hubbell, which is the highest rating possible regarding legal ability and professional ethics, and has been named to Florida Trend's Legal Elite and SuperLawyers. He is a frequent speaker and panel member at programs and seminars on corporate, tax and real estate matters.

Mr. Sanchez-Medina is the immediate past President of the Cuban American Bar Association (CABA), and is a member of the American Bar Association, as well as the Business Law, Tax Law, and Real Property, Trust and Probate Sections of The Florida Bar. He has also served on the Board of Directors of several not-for-profit organizations dedicated to improving the lives of children in Miami-Dade County. Mr. Sanchez-Medina is fluent in Spanish.